STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE IN NONDISCRIMINATING CONDUCT OF 4-H/YOUTH DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS

4-H clubs are assisted by the Cooperative Extension System. They are organized for the purpose of developing youth as responsible and productive citizens. Educational programs of Kentucky Cooperative Extension serve all people regardless of race, color, age, sex, religion, disability, or national origin.

Agents should use the state 4-H enrollment forms as their compliance statement of non-discriminatory conduct.
The form needs to be signed on an annual basis and filed in the civil rights and affirmative action file.
Forms are available through the Mar-Tech Kentucky 4-H enrollment system.
The above statement can also be used.
