Exists on paper, no meetings held.	Meets once a year, mainly social focus.	Agents report to council periodically about Extension accomplishments.	Members talk about local issues and needs.	Council prioritizes needs, identifies C-MAPs, selects programs to emphasize and de-emphasize.	Committees, task forces, work groups explore issues in depth, suggests possible programs to address specific needs.	Committees, task forces, work groups assist agent in designing programs that meet identified needs.	Committees, task forces, work groups assist implementing or “carrying out” programs that they design.	Committees, task forces, work groups design, implement, evaluate programs and articulate successes to decision-makers.
