

Truth and Consequences

The Truth and Consequences Program is a volunteer management and outreach initiative of the Cooperative Extension Service. A total of 33 counties throughout Kentucky were engaged in the Truth and Consequences Featured Program during the 2015 fiscal year. 1,444 parents actively learned about substance abuse in county programs, with 1,374 gaining important knowledge about available resources.

- 1,444 Number of parents that have gained awareness of the problem and impacts of substance abuse in our community as a result of Extension efforts.
- 1,374 Number of parents that have gained knowledge of the resources that are available for substance abuse in our community as a result of Extension programming.
- 702 Number of community partners that have gained awareness of the problem and impacts of substance abuse in our community as a result of Extension efforts.
- 656 Number of community partners that have gained knowledge of the resources that are available for substance abuse in our community as a result of Extension programming.
- 5,176 # of students indicating that they developed a better understanding of the legal consequences of substance abuse
- 5,029 Number of students indicating that they developed a better understanding of the health consequences of substance abuse
- 4,446 Number of students indicating that they developed a better understanding of the emotional consequences of substance abuse
- 4,838 Number of students indicating that they developed a better understanding of the financial consequences of substance abuse
- 7,466 Number of students indicating that they developed a better understanding of the risk and harm of substance abuse
- 7,058 Number of students indicating that they developed a better understanding of where to access help in the community for a substance abuse issue
- 908 Number of community partners/agencies involved in the Truth and Consequences: The Choice is Yours Program
- 5,940 Number of total volunteer hours completed through the Truth and Consequences: The Choice is Yours Program
- 6,616 Number of students that completed the Truth and Consequences: The Choice is Yours Program
- 51 Number of additional substance abuse education and/or prevention activities that occurred as a result of the Truth and Consequences: The Choice is Yours Program
- 146 Number of community partners that have adopted/enforced substance abuse prevention policies
- 175 Number of students who know peers that are no longer engaging in substance abuse as a result of what they learned through the program